FOREWORD

PURPOSE

For over seventy years we have been producing DEPENDABLE vegetable seeds in wholesale quantities for the trade. During all this time it has been our aim, by careful selection or by hybridization, to develop foundation stocks of outstanding merit. By single plant propagation through generations of individual cultures we have developed pedigreed strains of new types and improved existing varieties.

PERSONNEL

The entire process of our seed production is in the hands of our own organization of expert seedsmen who follow with vigilance the operations of planting, breeding ground and field inspection, selection and rogueing, through harvesting and threshing and on into the warehouses where milling and handpicking are done and the finished product is packaged for distribution.

MECHANICAL EQUIPMENT

Our twenty-two warehouses are designed for efficient operation and are equipped with the latest type of machinery for milling, handpicking and testing the various kinds of seeds. Every mechanical means is employed to minimize the chance of mixtures.

BEANS

Through careful selection and intensive breeding we are producing an increasing number of completely stringless strains. The older, coarser varieties of Beans are being gradually replaced by these choicer, more tender sorts. Our main objective, however, is by these same means to maintain stocks of the standard popular sorts of proven merit, of such purity as to serve the needs of the discriminating planter in a uniformly satisfactory manner.

SWEET CORN
Connecticut Grown
Sweet Corn has been a "Leader" with us for sixty years, during which time we have originated many of the best known varieties. Soil and climatic conditions conspire to place Connecticut grown Sweet Corn in a class by itself. Corn grown here matures earlier than western grown seed of the same varieties and produces deeper kernels of greater sweetness and of less noticeable hull.
